) Case No.: 3:09-cv-02292

) JAMES L. GARLOW’S MOTION TO ) QUASH SUBPOENA AND FOR ) PROTECTIVE ORDER

) Trial Date: January 11, 2010

25 For the reasons stated in the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Movant, Jim Garlow, 26 by counsel, respectfully requests this Court to quash the subpoena dated December 28, 2009 that 27 he was issued by counsel for the Plaintiffs to appear and testify on January 11, 2010 at trial in 28 this case. Non-Party witness furthermore requests an Order of this Court limiting the questions

1 that may be asked of him in the event that this court fails to grant the requested Motion to 2 Quash. He requests that no questions be permitted by the court regarding his personal beliefs 3 regarding traditional marriage or same-sex marriage or any questions regarding his activities in 4 furtherance of associations with others or individual actions taken by him supporting his beliefs
5 regarding traditional or same-sex marriage. This would include sermons, speeches, comments to 6 his parishioners or others, writings by him, and any other speech or actions taken by him alone or 7 with others promoting traditional marriage and opposing same-sex marriage. As stated in his 8 affidavit this witness had nothing to do with the drafting of Proposition 8 in any manner 9 whatsoever and his only association with Proposition 8 is in his speech supporting traditional 10 marriage and therefore Proposition 8 and opposing same-sex marriage, all of which--witness 11 asserts--are protected First Amendment activities.
